Another wood-cutting Saturday at Elkdale.
I was up & at work when the crew arrived-- I had a fire going. NO SVB. No crew: Jack &

"There are two kinds of dreamers: there is the dreamer who never wakes up; and there is the dreamer who is never so wide awake as when he dreams."

Austen made the above statement with Jean Colville in mind.

The grounds here at Elkdale are shaping up very nicely. By about no more ^{Saturday} session, the trees can all be cut up & stacked. There are just one or two more trees and they are on the Dunduff side at the edge of the property. I shall be glad to have my Saturdays back to myself once again.

SRP in the "20 Year ago"
column. I must mention this to Kathy the typesetter, because I'm sure that she made this
"historical note" specifically because she knows me.

Do you remember when . . .

25 YEARS AGO
Jermyn's Crystal Fire Co. aerial truck, firemen from Artisan of Jermyn, Grant Singer of Simpson, and Mayfield Fire Company threw their support to men of Columbia, Mitchell and Cottage Companies to fight the blaze at the Crystal Restaurant on Salem Ave.
Winners of the Carbondale Women's Club Halloween parade appeared on the front page of the NEWS. Pictured were: Robert Rumford and Peggy Barrett, best decorated bikes; William Gibney and Drew Colville, best floats; Teresa Pettinato and John McAndrew, best tramp; Karen Jordan, John Jordan, Sandy Humphreys and James Romeo, most original; Rosemarie Molinaro and Ann Marie Thomas, most beautiful; Walter Fox and Paul Abraham, funniest. Judges were Miss Isabel Boylan, Mrs. Walter Price, Francis Truman, Ed Ashman and Harold Snedeker.

20 YEARS AGO
S. Robert Powell, Carbondale RD 1, a senior at Pennsylvania State University, had been elected to the Secondary Education Council at Penn State.
Frank "Cappy" Burnett resigned as basketball coach and assistant football coach at Benjamin Franklin High School? They story was reported in a byline written by Frank Lee on the front page of the NEWS.

The town of Dundaff at one time had aspirations of real metropolitan growth? A story noted that the small town which sported a bank, newspaper factories and even its own $10 banknote, was vying to be made a county seat.
John J. Winters, representing the Carbondale YMCA, attended the three-day seminar for general secretaries at the Pennsylvania State YMCA in Harrisburg? He attended sessions on lay-staff team work, legal responsibilities of local Y's, important considerations in personnel and financial management.

Musical instruments were displayed and exhibited to students at Roosevelt School? John M. Hart displayed the trumpet, Charles Denney displayed the french horn, John Griffin the saxophone, Lynnae Chubb, trombone, Bobby Wise, bass horn, John Calabro, flute, Carolyn Vadella, clarinet. Gabe Pugliano was musical director and Joseph Ferraro was instructor.

Mrs. Elvira McLean, Philadelphia, a former resident of Jermyn, was named director of Christian education and assistant to the executive secretary of the United Churches of Lackawanna County, succeeding Helen Suter who retired?
She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
William Richards, 219 Franklin St., Jermyn.

Contributions and donations to the CLDGO industrial campaign amounted at the beginning of the week to $33,632? A complete list was published up to the Monday before.

ATTEND ASSOCIATION MEETING TONIGHT

after church Mary Schermerhorn gave me the following book (which she & son mari found in their attic):

"Proceedings of the Grand International Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers at the Second Biennial Session, held in Ottawa, Ontario, May 13, 1896." Published in Cleveland, OH, by the Cleveland Printing & Publishing Co., 1896 - 170 pages.

Dinner at the Golf Course; Laura & April & William were there; RTP is again in the hospital-- 2 weeks ago he fell and hurt his back & now he has headaches again.
Spent the afternoon at Elkdale -- Cleaned & vacuumed the whole place; made applesauce & a very very delicious apple crisp. APT and Phil stopped by -- we drank tea & had a very nice visit for about an hour. Talked about the Starvecon Viaduct.
